

JOSÉ LUIS LLAQUET DE ENTRAMBASAGUAS

(Barcelona, 1963)

Ph.D. in Law. Honoris Causa Doctorate. Aggregate Professor and Accredited Member of ANECA and AQU. Academic Management Positions. Fellow Researcher and Publicist. Foreign Languages.

I have a Ph.D. in Law from the University of Barcelona and an Honoris Causa Doctorate from Ovidius University (Romania). I also have undergraduate academic degrees (B.A.+M.A.) in Law, Canon Law, Spirituality Theology and Ecclesiastical Studies and a B.A. in Ecclesiastical Philosophy.

I have been Deputy Magistrate in the Provincial Court of Barcelona and Judge in the Ecclesiastical Court of Barcelona. I was an Attorney-at-Law and I am currently working in the field of matrimonial nullities. I have a seat in the Management Board of the Virolai Educational Group (EMSA), and in its Foundation and Association as well.

I have dedicated most of my professional life to academic activities. I have worked in the fields of Law, Theology and Spirituality, in several Spanish and foreign universities as lecturer, associate professor and visiting professor. My work as a scholar has been carried out in full attendance or classroom mode (Loyola university and other universities), partial-attendance mode (UNED) and on line mode (UNIR and UOC) through the utilization of web-based resources and ICT's in virtual campuses.

I am accredited as Lecturer by the ANECA and Aggregate Professor by the Agència per la Qualitat del Sistema Universitari de Catalunya (Agencies for the Quality of University Education in Spain and Catalonia) with a positive evaluation for my teaching and research activity. As a member of the Faculty Panel of UAO I participated in the elaboration of the Memory and Syllabus of the Law Degree within the process of adjustment of the university's academic programmes to the requirements of the Bologna Educational System (EEES).

I held responsibilities in Academic Management, creating, coordinating and tutoring blended learning and partial-attendance study programmes in Law in different campuses. I also represented the Faculty of Social Sciences in the Library Commission at the UAO, and was in charge of the validation of foreign academic titles.

I am specialized in Law (Constitutional, Historical, Civil, Ecclesiastical and Canon), Ethics, Deontology and Intercultural, Religious and Spiritual Issues. I have also worked in other humanistic fields having obtained several literary prizes. I form part of different Foundations and Associations.

I have taught courses and given graduate conferences and seminars in various universities in South Africa, Italy, France, Great Britain, Romania, Peru, Bolivia, Chile, USA, Paraguay and Mexico; Legal Bars and Law Societies (Barcelona, Chuquisaca-Bolivia); Foundations (Olof Palme); and national and foreign Associations (Club de Roma, Rotary Club). I have presented academic papers in many international Conventions, Conferences, Symposiums and Workshops, and I have also been a research fellow at various foreign universities (USA, South Africa, France, Mexico and Peru).

I have formed part of various research groups funded by the Spanish Ministry of Education. I have been director and co-director of several Ph.D., M.A. and B.A. research projects, as well as a member of different evaluation commissions of doctoral theses in Spain and France. I also participate actively in the review and evaluation of Ph.D., M.A. and B.A. dissertations and final presentations for different universities.

I have published 6 monographic books, 55 book chapters, 5 articles within collective books and 40 articles in academic journals and reviews specialized in different topics. I have been co-editor of the Spanish edition of the 'Diccionario Enciclopédico de Derecho Canónico' (Encyclopaedic Dictionary of Canon Law) (ed. Herder), co-director of 'El sistema Jurídico ante la digitalización. Estudios de Derecho Público y Criminología' (ed. Tirant lo Blanch, 2020) and coordinator of 'Rafael Merry del Val. 150 años de su nacimiento' (ed. Planiana, Italy, 2020). and I have directed a monograph for the Club of Roma. Several Court Rulings and Judicial Sentences regarding canonical matrimonial nullities and criminal issues which I have prepared as Judge-rapporteur have been published.

I have been part of and I am a member of different national and foreign research groups, with private and public subsidies from various Ministries of the Spanish Government.

I have an advanced level in English and French.
